

Curriculum Policy of Kobe University

Graduate school

Based upon the diploma policy, Kobe University has organized curricula which meet the educational objectives of each graduate school. Each course aims to cultivate internationally competitive individuals who possess deep knowledge and advanced expertise as well as humanity, creativity and international awareness.